Every order is individually handled to ensure that your art arrives with you promptly and in mint condition.

Our online shop payment methods are secure, and includes options such as PayFast, Zapper or an EFT transfer, your choice.

What Do We Sell:

We have a variety of mediums, price ranges and artists to choose from, and we add new artwork regularly.

The works range from traditional oil paintings, watercolours, sculptures and etchings, right through to digital artworks that might surprise you and strike an emotional chord. We are confident that there is something for every taste.

We have also added Functional Art to our repertoire, because we would like to put art in everybody's hands. We therefore have decided to put our original South African Artists' artworks on carefully selected merchandise, and we know that these are items you would love to use on a daily basis!

Our Bargain Bin ensures that you can spoil yourself or a special friend with a quick impulse buy under R500.

Support A Charity through Us:

We are very proud of our partnership with the Johannesburg Children's Home.

In a plight to help them run the place as well as they do, OnlineArt.Gallery has offered to help them by selling the wonderful artwork done by the children in the home, on our website. Please support them by buying the artwork!
